

IAPS URANIA CHRISTY TARBET LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP

Application

Deadline - October 15, 2023

The UCT Scholarship was created to foster advancement in the artistic education of artists with limited means. It will pay the tuition for a workshop from any of our full roster of presenters at the 2024 IAPS Convention for up to five artists.

Eligibility: Open to any individual member of an IAPS member society in good standing who will be attending the 2024 IAPS Convention in Albuquerque, NM, June 11-16, 2024.

A current list of IAPS member societies can be viewed at www.iapspastel.org/memsoc_directory.php

Deadline: October 15, 2023

Notification: October 30, 2023

Award: Tuition fee for a 1- or 2-day workshop during the IAPS Convention.

Note: This pays only the tuition fee. Registration, hotel/travel costs, etc., are the responsibility of the winner.

Recipients receive priority scheduling for the workshop of their choice.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Select your current membership in an IAPS member society from the drop-down menu; if emailing your statement, mention your society name.
- Write a statement describing why you wish to receive this scholarship, your history as an artist, your passion, what inspires you - anything that expresses what you would gain from receiving the scholarship. This should include an informal description of your financial need for the scholarship. Save as PDF.

Upload statement in PDF format to website or email to artistnancynowak@gmail.com

There will be a blind/anonymous judging of your statement.

Winners will be sent the convention workshop schedule in advance of the registration date, with information on how to sign up for the chosen workshop.

If you have any questions, please email Nancy Nowak at artistnancynowak@gmail.com